This family came to England with the Saxons in 449-500 and settled in what is now the S.E. corner of Nottinghamshire and N. Leicestershire

When William the Conqueror invaded England in 1066, the Lord of Stanton was Sir Malgerus (Mauger), the Stanton estate was five miles from the Castle of Belvoir, and Sir Malgerus defended it so successfully that when William had conquered England he gave to Sir Malgerus the lands he had held. (See "Ancient Abbeys and Castles of England" by Timbs)

King George 4th, then the Prince, staid at the castle in 1814 and Queen Victoria and the young Prince were there in 1843. Rev. Dr.

Stanton was then in residence.

THE STANTON ARMS.

Are a shield with a silver background upon which are two black chevrons with a curved, or indented black border. A. helmet crest was adopted representing a Fox, in natural colors, standing.

There are two mottoes, one above, and one below the crest, the one above--Moderata Durant, --the one below--En Dieu Ma Foy.

THE STANTON'S – HISTORICAL NOTES AND GENEALOGY

ROBERT L. JACKSON, 2004

Historical Background

At the beginning of the history of England, the Britons were largely in possession of the island. This possession continued up to the close of the first century when the Romans began their conquest. The Romans occupied parts of the country until about the middle of the fourth century, and were followed by the great Germanic invasion of which the Jutes from Slesvig were probably the first. Later the Saxon's came from the countries lying near the southwest shore of the Baltic Sea. They, in turn, were followed by the Angles from Slesvig (Jutland/Denmark). Some of the "original" inhabitants were driven to the hill country and remote parts, such as Cumberland and Wales. Others intermarried with the invaders and "lost" their nationality and distinctive character. The Angles gave their name to the country, Angles Land or England, and, under Egbert (827 A.D.) united many of the smaller countries into the Kingdom of England.

In the eighth century, the Northmen or Normans, a race of vigorous, self-reliant men, left the shores of Norway and Denmark, probably because of overcrowding and the scarcity of food, and repeatedly robbed the southeast coast of England and the western coast of the European continent. This activity took them even as far as the eastern end of the Mediterranean Sea, but they finally settled in large numbers in northern France. For some two centuries they mixed with the Gauls, the ancestors of the modern French. The Norse transmitted to the Gauls many traits they (Gauls) did not possess. These traits included vigor, physical strength, self-reliance and the spirit of adventure. In turn, the blending of cultures gave to the Normans culture and refinement, which they did not possess. This was the ancestry of the Normans, who in 1066 A.D., under William the Conqueror, invaded a rather subdued England. Among the desirable traits they brought with them were the executive and administrative abilities which the English did not possess earlier.

Thus the amalgamation of the Britons, Jutes, Saxons, Angles, Gauls and Norsemen, came to America for freedom, religious and political. No doubt unconsciously they were urged on by a trace of old Norse spirit of adventure and the quest for better homes for them and their children.(1)

Origin of the Stanton name and Coat of Arms

The Stanton Coat of Arms as derived from the work of Albini or Albencius who received the castle from Toden. The arms of Albini of Belvoir was a shield with a gold background upon which were two chevrons and a red border. He gave the Lord of Stanton a shield with a silver background upon which were two black chevrons within a curved or indented black border. Later, a helmet crest was adopted and consisted of a fox standing and of the natural color. There are two mottos. The one below the Coat of Arms is "EN DIEU MA FOY"(In God My Faith) the other above the crest is "MODERATA DURANT" (Moderate Acquisitions are Lasting).

The arms just described is to be found in Burke's Heraldic Illustrations and is borne by the Staunton's of Longbridge, who are a branch of the Staunton's of Staunton in Nottinghamshire. This is undoubtedly the basis of all Stanton arms and represents the original family.

The Stanton name is traced back to an Anglo-Saxon origin, formed of two key words, stan (stone) and ton (town) or Stonetown. Since the surname, sire name or father's name originally came from the place of residence, occupation, characteristic of the individual or some notable event in his life, we can conclude that some ancestor took the name of his town (Stonetown) for his surname.

Staunton, before the Norman Conquest was the freehold of Tori and was Held by Mauger. His descendants held the first residency there and took the Staunton name.

The historic origin of the Stanton's was in the eleventh century, in the southeast corner of Nottinghamshire, England and the northern end of Leicestershire, England. It was here that Sir Malgerus (Mauger), Lord of Stanton lived and became its first resident. Belvoir Castle is located five miles southeast of this Lordship. It was built by Robert de Todini in the 11th century. "The Lordship of Staunton" is five miles from Belvoir Castle and seven miles from Newark. It is believed that it was in the Staunton name for more than 13 centuries, about the date of the Saxon conquest. It is assumed by many that the family came with the Saxon's. The tower of the castle was defended by Sir Malgerus against the onslaught of the Normans under William the Conqueror. The defense of the Tower by Malgerus was so strong and effective that, when William's forces prevailed, he rewarded Sir Malgerus all of the lands he hade previously owned. Since that time it has been known as "Staunton Tower."

In the rhyming pedigree of the Staunton family, one finds the following reference to this tenure of the Castle Guard and the defense of Belvoir:

"At which the same time the Mauger knight
Thrughe feats of Arms and Sheeld,
In Marcyall prowē, so valeant was,
That then he wane the Feelde.
In Belveor Castle was his houlde,
The Stauntones Tour is highte,
The strongest Forte in all that front,
And heist to all men's sighte.
Unto which forte with force and Flagge
Ye Stauntons stocke must sticke,
For to defende against ye Foe,
Which at ye same coud kicke.
His lodginge large in that Turritte
At all times for his ease,
He may command both night and day,
An no man to displease." ⁽⁵⁾

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

Robert Stanton, our first direct line ancestor in America

Robert Stanton (Staunton) was born in Leicestershire, England in 1599. He married Avis Almy, daughter of Christopher Almy, South Kilworth, Leicestershire, England and a Miss Clarke. Robert and Avis had a son Robert, born in 1627 in England. The family emigrated to America some time between 1627 and 1638 as Robert Jr. made the journey with his parents. Apparently Robert's brother John also made the same journey as it is reported that John and Robert Stanton are among the very earliest settlers in New Plymouth. ⁽¹⁾ There is as yet no certainty as to the parentage of Robert Senior. Some believe that his father was Thomas Stanton born in 1572, Leicestershire, England and mother Anne Stanton, born in 1576.⁽²⁾ Others suggest that, from a clipping from an old Newport paper, we read "copies of the family record in my possession say that the father of Robert of Newport was Thomas, and that he died at his son's house, very aged. Thomas Stanton of Stonington was probably the brother of Robert."⁽³⁾ If, in fact, the clipping is accurate regarding Robert's father, we may speculate that he emigrated at the same time as Robert and his family.

Robert and family were in Portsmouth, Newport, Rhode Island in 1638 (then called Pocasset). This was a settlement organized by William Coddington and others who left Massachusetts to avoid persecution on account of their religious opinions. ⁽⁴⁾ Apparently these opinions were so far removed from the tenets of the Bay Colony majority because of certain passages of the Bible, they were essentially driven out, settling in the Portsmouth area. Robert Stanton was one of the names signed to the compact for forming the colony of Portsmouth on the island of Aquidneck, having submitted themselves to the government thereof as it would be

Robert Stanton (Stanton) was born in Leicestershire, England in 1598. He married Avis Almy, daughter of Christopher Almy, South Kibworth, Leicestershire, England and a Miss Clark. Robert and Avis had a son Robert, born in 1617 in England. The family emigrated to America some time between 1617 and 1638 as Robert Jr. made the journey with his parents. Apparently Robert's brother John also made the same journey as it is reported that John and Robert Stanton are among the very earliest settlers in New Plymouth. There is at yet no certainty as to the parentage of Robert Stanton. Some believe that his father was Thomas Stanton born in 1575, Leicestershire, England and mother Anne Stanton, born in 1576. Others suggest that from a clipping from an old Newport paper, we read "regard of the family record in my possession say that the father of Robert of Newport was Thomas, and that he died at his son's house, very aged. Thomas Stanton of Scotland was probably the brother of Robert," as it is just the clipping is accurate regarding Robert's father, we may speculate that he emigrated at the same time as Robert and his family.
Robert and family were in Portsmouth, Newport, Rhode Island in 1638 (then called Portsmouth). This was a settlement organized by William Coddington and others who left Massachusetts to avoid persecution on account of their religious opinions. Apparently these opinions were so far removed from the tenets of the Bay Colony majority because of certain passages of the Bible, they were essentially driven out, settling in the Portsmouth area. Robert Stanton was one of the names signed to the compact for forming the colony of Portsmouth on the island of Aquidneck, having submitted themselves to the government thereof as it would be established. (5) On April 30, 1639, he and twenty-eight others signed the following compact:

"We, whose names are underwritten do acknowledge ourselves the legal subjects of his majesty King Charles, and in his name do hereby bind ourselves into a civil body politicke, unto his laws, according to matters of justice."

Aquidneck Island is the largest in Narragansett Bay, eastern Rhode Island, occupying an area of forty-four square miles. Aquidneck was called by the Indians "Pocasset" (where the stream widens) and is located in the northern part of Portsmouth, Rhode Island. At one time it was controlled by the Wampanoag Indians, whose leader was the famous Great Sachem or the Massasoit. The Massasoit greeted the pilgrims at Plymouth, Massachusetts in 1621. Aquidneck Island was used primarily as a hunting territory for the Wampanoag Indians, although also served as a summer residence for them. (6)

It seems clear that Robert Stanton's residency remained in Portsmouth at least until 1645. He was present at a General Court of Elections on March 12, 1640. He received freeman status on March 16, 1641. In 1642 Robert was a Sergeant Junior and in 1644 was Sergeant. (5)

Robert's arrival in 1638 must have been accompanied by a great celebration. Since, on September 15, 1638, he was fined 5 shillings for having been engaged in a "riot of drunkenness on the 13th." (5)

Robert and Avis had six children although some references list only three, And at least one lists nine. In addition to their son Robert Junior, they had Sarah, born in 1640 in Newport, Mary, born in 1642, John, born August 6, 1645, Newport, Rhode Island, Daniel, born in 1645 and Prudence, born in 1649.

In 1655, the first of the Society of Friends arrived from England, and their persecution began. Mary Stanton, a young woman from Rhode Island, (sixteen years of age and almost certainly the daughter of Robert Stanton) was whipped in Massachusetts in 1658 for being a Friend. She was one of many who suffered for their religious beliefs. It is not known whether Robert was a member of the Friends Society, but he appears to have sought freedom of religious beliefs in coming from Massachusetts to the more liberal Rhode Island. If he was not a member, some of his family were members as well as a large number of his descendants. A record of a Friends Meeting at Newport mentions son John as the first Stanton to join. Sarah or Mary or both may have joined before the family moved to Newport and so Newport Friends had no record of Mary's persecution. (2)

Robert's daughter, Sarah, married Henry Tibbetts in December of 1661, and They raised eight children. (See Genealogical Chart S - 1)

Son John, my great (6) grandfather, married Mary Harndell (Harndale), (1647 - 1687), the daughter of John Harndell, in 1667 at a meeting of the Friends. They had ten children. (See Genealogy Chart S - 1)

John's second wife, Mary Clarke Cranston (1641 - 1711), was the widow of Governor John Cranston and a daughter of Jeremiah and Frances (Latham) Clarke. Together, they had one child, Henry, born May 22, 1688. These children are verified by the will of Captain John Stanton, dated 1712 and proved July 5, 1725. as a landowner in Newport. The Newport Record shows that on February 15, 1679, he sold to James Brown, a cooper in Newport, land in Coeset for 40 shillings. In 1680 he paid taxes of 12 shillings. He served on a grand jury in 1688. Both he and Elizabeth passed on sometime after 1690. Daniel and Elizabeth had six children; Elizabeth, born June 20, 1676, Martha, born June 8, 1678, Sarah, born February 27, 1680, Ruth, born April 8, 1687, Benjamin, born on October 20, 1690, and Daniel born April 19, 1682 (See Genealogy Chart S - 1).⁽⁵⁾

Several of the Stanton's were mariners including Daniel III (1682 - 1708). He was a sailor working between Barbadoes and Philadelphia. In 1706/7, he married Abigail Spicer. In 1708, they started on a journey from Barbadoes. Daniel dies and is buried at sea. Abigail arrives in Philadelphia, and soon her son is born, who is Daniel IV, born in 1708. Abigail's will is dated May 10, 1714 and was proved on May 31, 1714 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She died a widow and gave her estate to her son Daniel IV with the following proviso: if he dies before he reaches the age of 21, the estate goes to her brother, Thomas Spicer. (apparently he was the one who raised Daniel). Daniel IV survived and married Sarah Lloyd on February 5, 1733. They lived in Philadelphia where Daniel carried on the trade of a joiner and was a distinguished Society of Friends preacher for 43 years. He traveled and preached from North Carolina to Dover, New Hampshire and to Barbadoes, as well as through England, Scotland and Ireland. He had children in Philadelphia but only one lived to be of age. Daniel IV died at age 62 on June 29, 1770. His wife, Sarah Lloyd Stanton, preceded him in death on 03 April 1748.

The memoirs of Daniel Stanton IV contain the following:

as a landowner in Newport. The Newport Record shows that on February 12, 1678, he sold to James Brown, a cooper in Newport, land in Covert for 40 shillings. In 1689 he paid taxes of 12 shillings. Several of the Stanton's were mariners including Daniel III (1632 - 1703). He was a sailor working between Barbados and Philadelphia. In 1704, he married Abigail Spicer. In 1708, they started on a journey from Barbados. Daniel died and is buried at sea. Abigail arrived in Philadelphia, and soon her son is born, who is Daniel IV, born in 1708. Abigail's will is dated May 10, 1714 and was proved on May 21, 1714 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He had children in Philadelphia but only one lived to be of age. Daniel IV died on June 28, 1778. His will,

Sarah Lloyd Stanton, predeceased him in death on 23 April 1748.

The members of Daniel Stanton IV contain the following:

"I was born in 1708 of honest parents, Daniel and Abigail Stanton. My father I never saw, being lost at sea before my birth. My mother died when I was a child, and I, being destitute of brother or sister, was brought up (until I was apprenticed) by my mother's brother in New Jersey. I was then apprenticed to a joiner in Philadelphia. In 1731 I went to Rhode Island to see relatives, this being the place where my father was born, and to obtain some estate there which was my father's, of which I had an account during my apprenticeship. Saw my relatives and staid some time to attend to my outward affairs and returned to Philadelphia. (Daniel was in Rhode Island in 1735 and 1744.) My wife died in 1748, age 40, and in about a week later I lost my youngest son, having lost four sons before her death. I have two daughters left. A daughter Abigail died in 1757, age 21, and was the eldest daughter."

He also speaks of Uncle Thomas Chalkey and Aunt Martha Chalkey, his kinsman, Job Newman in Coventry, England. (Newman's wife was a sister to his (Daniel's) wife, Sarah Lloyd. He also speaks of being in Newport, Rhode Island in 1754, at the burial of Samuel Holmes's wife. He speaks of Mary Henderson as "my father's sister, she being near West River, Maryland. Mary Henderson died about 1761. He also says he visited at Shrewsbury, New Jersey, "my father's cousin, James Tucker, 1764"

Daniel's children were John born in 1734 and died in August 1737, Abigail, born 1736 and died in November, 1757, Daniel, born 1738 and died in 1740, Sarah, born July 5, 1741 married a Benedict Dorsey. Mr. Dorsey was born in 1734 at Anne Arundel, Maryland. She was still alive at the death of her father. Other children were John, born in 1743 died in 1744, Samuel, born in 1745 and died in 1746, and Josiah, born in 1747 and died in 1748.^(7, 8)

m. ~1640, Newport, Newport, Rhode Island

NOTES: Robert was in America in 1638. He and others were admitted inhabitants of the island of Aquidneck. On September 15, he was fined 5s for having been engaged in a riot of drunkenness on September 13, 1638. On April 30, 1639, Robert and twenty-eight others signed the following compact:

"We, whose names are underwritten, do acknowledge ourselves the legal subjects of his majesty, King Charles, and in his name do we hereby bind ourselves into a civil body politick, unto his laws, according to matters of justice."¹

Other significant happenings in his life in early America include:

1. March 12, 1640- He was present at a General Court of Elections
2. March 16, 1641- Robert was elected a freeman
3. 1642 - Sergeant Junior
4. 1644 - Sergeant
5. September 29, 1652- Robert sold to Benedict Arnold a dwelling house and 8 acres. (This Benedict Arnold is not the revolutionary war hero/traitor. That Benedict Arnold was born some 80 - 100 years later. However, he may have been in the same blood line.)
6. 1655- freeman
7. 1670- Deputy
8. 1671- Juryman

"On January 30, 1698, a deed from the sons of Thomas Stanton, of Stonington, (probably the brother of Robert of Newport), Thomas Stanton Sr., Joseph Stanton Sr., Robert Stanton Sr. and Samuel Stanton ,Sr., "who are four brothers" the said Joseph living at Quonocontaug, all the rest in Stonington, Sold to Captain William Champlin, sr. for 85 pounds, land between Quonocontaug and Pawcatuck Rivers."¹

"Earlier than this, on October 16, 1682, Anne Stanton of Stonington, widow of Thomas, sold 200 acres of land for 24 pounds to George Denison, said land having been given by will of Thomas Stanton to his son Daniel, who had empowered his mother to sell it. (Daniel was in Barbados in 1682. The Joseph Stanton mentioned in the first deed was doubtless the same Joseph who was constable in Westerly in

1688, and whose son Joseph, Jr. was deputy from Westerly in 1706 and who later was deputy from Charlestown (after that was set off from Westerly.) This son Joseph, dies in Charlestown in 1753 (leaving an inventory of 10,003 pounds, 5 shillings and 8 pence) and was a Colonel at the time of his decease.”¹

Robert and Avis Stanton had three children, Sarah, John and Daniel. (Grove Stanton's manuscript has as children of Robert and Avis these three and Robert, born in England in 1627, Mary, who supposedly was whipped in the Bay Colony in 1657 for being a member of the Friends, born in 1642, and Prudence, born in 1649 and died young.)² Our heritage comes from son John.

Son John, borne of Susannah, is my great, great, great, great, grandfather, who married Mary Sherman. This data extends by four generations the ancestral development of my father, Olin D. Jackson. While additional information on many of these children is still unknown to me, we do know that #12 David married a Martha - - -, and had at least one child, Elizabeth born in ~1747 in Kingston, Washington, Rhode Island. She died in September 1816.

#10 Sabra married Jonathan Barber in 1769 in Richmond, R.I. Jonathan was a sea captain. They raised 10 children, Elisha, Deliah, Susannah, James, Sabra, Russel, Sally, Jonathan, Elizabeth, and Henry. Henry was born in 1772. He in turn married Anna Rathbone on November 1, 1792 in Exeter, R. I. They had one child Polly, born August 26, 1801.⁶

#11 Mary married James Lewis. The children by marriage one were most certainly all born in Newport, Rhode Island. The first three children of the second marriage were born in Westerly, the next five in Charlestown, Rhode Island, and the final five were born in Richmond, Rhode Island.⁵

Family interconnections are best viewed by organizing them into family charts as I have attempted to do with the Lawrence, Jackson, Hansen and Nelson branches of the family. If time, patience, and brain power will allow it, I will attempt to do the same with the Stanton data. In this case there is an exceptional amount of data due to the early arrival of the Stanton's to North America, and their settling into Rhode Island, an obvious spot for seafarers. The map of Rhode Island shown below indicates the settling areas for the Stanton's. As the population grew, many of the growing communities split off from the "mother" town and formed new communities. Charlestown is an example of this outreach. Later on Richmond formed (1647) when Charlestown subdivided.^{1,6}

While we have much to add to the Stanton records from the generation 5 of John and Mary Sherman, I am going to back track to two of the other siblings of John, son of Robert. Although there is no direct line to us through these siblings, except as far distant cousins.

1. Hannah, b. 12-4-1702
 2. John, b. 2-21-1700
 3. Robert, b. 2-17-1702
 4. Mary, b. 12-12-1702

1. John, b. 2-18-1722
 2. John, b. 2-12-1727
 3. Benjamin, b. 2-17-1728
 4. Benjamin, b. 2-4-1740

 11. Mary, b. 11-20-1754
 12. Joseph, b. 2-28-1757
 13. Hannah, b. 1-1-1759

Now John, born in 1702, is my great-grandfather, who married Mary Sherman. The date stated by him for the ancestral origin of his father, Obed H. Jackson, is 1702. I have no information as to the date of his birth, but I know that he was born in 1702, and that he died in 1780. He was married in 1722 to Elizabeth, who died in 1780. He was married to Elizabeth in 1722 in Weymouth, N. H. Jonathan was a sea captain. They moved to England, where they were in 1772. He is now married to Hannah on November 1, 1772 in Weymouth, N. H. They had one child John, born August 10, 1773. His name was John Jackson. The children by marriage and were born in 1773 in Weymouth, N. H. The first three children of the second marriage were born in Weymouth, the next five in Weymouth, Rhode Island, and the final five were born in Weymouth, Rhode Island.

Family information are best to be kept in family charts as I have attempted to do with the Jacksons, Jacksons and Jacksons of the family. If that pattern and name power will allow it, I will attempt to do the same with the Jacksons. In this case there is an exceptional amount of data due to the early arrival of the Jacksons in America, and that early date being an obvious sign for migration. The map of Rhode Island shows Jacksons in the western part of the State. As the population grew, many of the growing communities still off from the "mother" town and formed new communities. Charleston is an example of this movement. Later on Charleston (1847) when Charleston was established.

While we have much to add to the Jackson records from the generation 2nd John and Mary Sherman, I am going to look back to two of the other things of John, son of Robert. Although there is no direct line to us through them, they, except as the direct source.

Sarah Stanton, daughter of Robert and Avis married Henry Tibbetts in December, 1661. Although her birth date is not known, she passed on sometime after 1708. Eight children were borne out of this marriage, Henry, Ann, George, John, Mary, Sarah, Martha, and an unnamed daughter.

Daniel Stanton, born in 1645 in Newport, Rhode Island, married an Elizabeth (?) prior to 1676, and was a land owner in Newport. The records show that on February 15, 1679, he sold to James Brown, a cooper of Newport, land in Coeset, for 40 shillings. In 1680 he was taxed 12 shillings. He served on a Grand Jury in 1688. Both he and Elizabeth passed on sometime after 1690. Daniel and Elizabeth had six children, Elizabeth. Born on June 20, 1676m Martha, born on June 8, 1678, Sarah, born on February 27, 1680, Ruth, born on April 8, 1687, Benjamin, born on October 20, 1690, and Daniel, born on April 19, 1682.

Daniel was a mariner and made voyages for some years between Barbados and Philadelphia. He married Abigail Spicer about 1707. Daniel died at sea on his way from Barbados to Philadelphia. His pregnant wife Abigail, who had accompanied Daniel on the trip to Barbados, gave birth to Daniel's son after her return to Philadelphia. Daniel Jr. was born in 1708. Daniel Sr. died in 1708. The widow Abigail died in 1714 and he will was proved May 31, 1714. To her son Daniel, she gave her estate, but if he died before age twenty-one, her brother Thomas Spicer was to have it. Good fortune prevailed and the son's death did not occur until June 29, 1770. Daniel Jr. had become a distinguished Quaker preacher.¹

Finally, with regard to Robert and Avis, we should make note of several generations of Avis' ancestry. She was born ~ 1621 in Dutton Bassett Leicestershire, England. Her father was Christopher Almy of South Kilworth, Leicestershire. Born sometime between 1557 and 1575. Her mother, a Miss Clarke, was born in 1678, ^{she and Christopher} and they were married sometime before 1601. Christopher Almy was the son of Thomas Almy of St. David, Barton, Summersetshire, England. Thomas was born in 1550 and died in 1604 in Dunton-Bassett, Leicestershire. Christopher's mother was Joanne Wale, 1552 – 1604 in Dunton-Bassett Leicestershire.

George Stanton, daughter of Robert and Ann married Henry Tibbitt in December, 1881. Although her birth date is not known, she passed on sometime after 1788. Eight children were borne out of this marriage, Henry, Ann, George, John, Mary, Sarah, Martha, and an unnamed daughter.

Isaac Stanton, born in 1645 in Newport, Rhode Island, married in 1665 (7) prior to 1675, and was a land owner in Newport. The records show that on February 12, 1675 he sold to James Brown, a cooper of Newport, land in Chase for 40 shillings. In 1688 he was taxed 12 shillings. He passed on around 1690. Grandson in 1688. With his son Elizabeth passed on sometime after 1690. Grandson in 1688. With his son Elizabeth passed on Jan 20, 1688. Martha, born on Jan 8, 1678, passed on February 27, 1690. Henry, born on April 8, 1687, Benjamin, born on October 20, 1690, and David, born on April 15, 1692.

Isaac was a farmer and made voyages for some years between the Cape and Philadelphia. He married Anne Spier about 1707. Isaac died in his own home in Philadelphia. The present wife of Isaac, who had accompanied Isaac on the trip to the Cape, gave birth to David, son of Isaac, in 1707. Isaac Jr. was born in 1707. Isaac Jr. died in 1708. The wife of Isaac died in 1714 and he was buried May 31, 1714. In her son David, she gave her estate, but it is said that she gave him her brother Thomas Spier was to have it. Good faith is preserved and the son's death did not occur until June 27, 1770. Isaac Jr. had become a distinguished Quaker preacher.

Finally, with regard to Robert and Ann, we should make note of several generations of Ann's ancestry. She was born - 1651 in James Brown, Lancastershire, England. Her father was Christopher Ann of Southwold, Lancashire. Born sometime between 1587 and 1595. Her mother, a Miss Clark, was born in 1575 and passed on sometime before 1601. Christopher Ann was the son of Thomas Ann of St. David, Lancashire, England. Thomas was born in 1550 and died in 1601 in Southwold, Lancashire. Christopher's mother was Jeanne Clark, 1521 - 1601 in James Brown, Lancashire.

Humphreys, Jr. for 85 pounds, land between Quononontang and Pawcatuck Rivers."

"Earlier than this, on October 16, 1682, Anne Stanton of Stonington, widow of Thomas, sold 200 acres of land for 24 pounds to George Denison, said land having been given by will of Thomas Stanton to his son Daniel, who had empowered his mother to sell it. (Daniel was in Barbados in 1682. The Joseph Stanton mentioned in the first deed was doubtless the same Joseph who was constable in Westerly in 1688, and whose son Joseph, Jr. was deputy from Westerly in 1706 and who later was deputy from Charlestown (after that was set off from Westerly.) This son Joseph, dies in Charlestown in 1753 (leaving an inventory of 10,003 pounds, 5 shillings and 8 pence) and was a Colonel at the time of his decease." ¹

Robert and Avis Stanton had three children, Sarah, John and Daniel. (Grove Stanton's manuscript has as children of Robert and Avis these three and Robert, born in England in 1627, Mary, who supposedly was whipped in the Bay Colony in 1657 for being a member of the Friends, born in 1642, and Prudence, born in 1649 and died young.)² Our heritage comes from son John.

Son John, borne of Susannah, is my great, great, great, great, grandfather, who married Mary Sherman. This data extends by four generations the ancestral development of my father, Olin D. Jackson. While additional information on many of these children is still unknown to me, we do know that #12 David married a Martha - - -, and had at least one child, Elizabeth, born in ~1747 in Kingston, Washington, Rhode Island. She died in September 1816.

#10 Sabra married Jonathan Barber in 1769 in Richmond, R.I. Jonathan was a sea captain. They raised 10 children, Elisha, Delilah, Susannah, James, Sabra, Russel, Sally, Jonathan, Elizabeth, and Henry. Henry was born in 1772. He in turn married Anna Rathbone on November 1, 1792 in Exeter, R. I. They had one child Polly, born August 26, 1801.⁶

#11 Mary married James Lewis. The children by the first marriage were most certainly all born in Newport, Rhode Island. The first three children of the second marriage were born in Westerly, the next five in Charlestown, Rhode Island, and the final five were born in Richmond, Rhode Island.⁵

Family interconnections are best viewed by organizing them into family charts as I have attempted to do with the Lawrence, Jackson, Hansen and Nelson branches of the family. If time, patience, and brain power will allow it, I will attempt to do the same with the Stanton data. In this case there is an exceptional amount of data due to the early arrival of the Stanton's to North America, and their settling into Rhode Island, an obvious spot for seafarers. The map of Rhode Island shown below indicates the settling areas for the Stanton's. As the population grew, many of the growing communities split off from the "mother" town and formed new communities. Charlestown is an example of this outreach. Later on Richmond formed (1647) when Charlestown subdivided.^{1,6}

While we have much to add to the Stanton records from the generation 5 of John and Mary Sherman, I am going to back track to two of the other siblings of John, son of Robert. Although there is no direct line to us through these siblings, except as far distant cousins.

Sarah Stanton, daughter of Robert and Avis married Henry Tibbetts in December, 1661. Although her birth date is not known, she passed on sometime after 1708. Eight children were borne out of this marriage, Henry, Ann, George, John, Mary, Sarah, Martha, and an unnamed daughter.

Daniel Stanton, born in 1645 in Newport, Rhode Island, he married an Elizabeth (?) prior to 1676, and was a land owner in Newport. The records show that on February 15, 1679, he sold to James Brown, a cooper of Newport, land in Coeset, for 40 shillings. In 1680 he was taxed 12 shillings. He served on a Grand Jury in 1688. Both he and Elizabeth passed on sometime after 1690. Daniel and Elizabeth had six children, Elizabeth. Born on June 20, 1676m Martha, born on June 8, 1678, Sarah, born on February 27, 1680, Ruth, born on April 8, 1687, Benjamin, born on October 20, 1690, and Daniel, born on April 19, 1682.

Daniel was a mariner and made voyages for some years between Barbados and Philadelphia. He married Abigail Spicer about 1707. Daniel died at sea on his way from Barbados to Philadelphia. His pregnant wife Abigail, who had accompanied Daniel on the trip to Barbados, gave birth to Daniel's son after her return to Philadelphia. Daniel Jr. was born in 1708. Daniel Sr. died in 1708. The widow Abigail died in 1714 and her will was proved May 31, 1714. To her son Daniel, she gave her estate, but if he died before age twenty-one, her brother Thomas Spicer was to have it. Good fortune prevailed and the son's death did not occur until June 29, 1770. Daniel Jr. had become a distinguished Quaker preacher.¹

Finally, with regard to Robert and Avis, we should make note of several generations of Avis' ancestry. She was born ~ 1621 in Dutton Bassett Leicestershire, England. Her father was Christopher Almy of South Kilworth, Leicestershire. Born sometime between 1557 and 1575. Her mother, a Miss Clarke, was born in 1678 and they were married sometime before 1601. Christopher Almy was the son of Thomas Almy of St. David, Barton, Summersetshire, England. Thomas was born in 1550 and died in 1604 in Dunton-Bassett, Leicestershire. Christopher's mother was Joanne Wale, 1552 - 1604 in Dunton-Bassett Leicestershire.

While we have much to add to the Stanton records from the generation 2 of John and Mary Spencer, I am going to back track to two of the other siblings of John, son of Robert. Although there is no direct line to us through these siblings, except in the distant cousin.

Sarah Stanton, daughter of Robert and Avis married Henry Tibbitts in November, 1661. Although her birth date is not known, she passed on sometime after 1708. Eight children were borne out of this marriage, Henry, Ann, George, John, Mary, Sarah, Martin, and an unnamed daughter.

Daniel Stanton, born in 1642 in Newport, Rhode Island, he married an Elizabeth (?) prior to 1678 and was a land owner in Newport. The records show that on February 12, 1679, he sold to James Brown, a cooper of Newport, land in Coconet for 40 shillings. In 1680 he was taxed 15 shillings. He served on a Grand jury in 1688. Both he and Elizabeth passed on sometime after 1690. Daniel and Elizabeth had six children, Deborah, born June 26, 1676 in Martha, born on June 8, 1678, Sarah, born on February 17, 1680, Bath, born on April 8, 1687, Benjamin, born on October 30, 1690, and Daniel, born on April 19, 1692.

Daniel was a merchant and made voyages for some years between Barbados and Philadelphia. He married Abigail Spicer about 1707. Daniel died in 1708 and his wife from Barbados to Philadelphia. His youngest wife Abigail, who had accompanied Daniel on the trip to Barbados, gave birth to Daniel's son after her return to Philadelphia. Daniel Jr. was born in 1709. Daniel Sr. died in 1708. The widow Abigail died in 1714 and her will was proved May 31, 1716. To her son Daniel, she gave her estate, but he died before age twenty one, her brother Thomas Spicer was to have it. Good fortune prevailed and the son's death did not occur until June 25, 1770. Daniel Jr. had become a distinguished Quaker preacher.

Finally, with regard to Robert and Avis, we should make note of several generations of Avis' ancestry. She was born - 1611 in Dunton Bassett, Kent, England. Her father was Christopher Abdy of South Kilworth, Leicestershire. Born sometime between 1557 and 1575, her mother, a Miss Clarke, was born in 1578 and they were married sometime before 1601. Christopher Abdy was the son of Thomas Abdy of St. David, Kent, Leicestershire, England. Thomas was born in 1559 and died in 1604 in Dunton Bassett, Leicestershire. Christopher's mother was Joanne Wals 1521 - 1581 in Dunton Bassett, Leicestershire.

1688, and whose son Joseph, Jr. was deputy from Westerly in 1706 and who later was deputy from Charlestown (after that was set off from Westerly.) This son Joseph, dies in Charlestown in 1753 (leaving an inventory of 10,003 pounds, 5 shillings and 8 pence) and was a Colonel at the time of his decease.”¹

Robert and Avis Stanton had three children, Sarah, John and Daniel. (Grove Stanton's manuscript has as children of Robert and Avis these three and Robert, born in England in 1627, Mary, who supposedly was whipped in the Bay Colony in 1657 for being a member of the Friends, born in 1642, and Prudence, born in 1649 and died young.)² Our heritage comes from son John.

Son John, borne of Susannah, is my great, great, great, great, grandfather, who married Mary Sherman. This data extends by four generations the ancestral development of my father, Olin D. Jackson. While additional information on many of these children is still unknown to me, we do know that #12 David married a Martha - - -, and had at least one child, Elizabeth born in ~1747 in Kingston, Washington, Rhode Island. She died in September 1816.

#10 Sabra married Jonathan Barber in 1769 in Richmond, R.I. Jonathan was a sea captain. They raised 10 children, Elisha, Deliah, Susannah, James, Sabra, Russel, Sally, Jonathan, Elizabeth, and Henry. Henry was born in 1772. He in turn married Anna Rathbone on November 1, 1792 in Exeter, R. I. They had one child Polly, born August 26, 1801.⁶

#11 Mary married James Lewis. The children by marriage one were most certainly all born in Newport, Rhode Island. The first three children of the second marriage were born in Westerly, the next five in Charlestown, Rhode Island, and the final five were born in Richmond, Rhode Island.⁵

Family interconnections are best viewed by organizing them into family charts as I have attempted to do with the Lawrence, Jackson, Hansen and Nelson branches of the family. If time, patience, and brain power will allow it, I will attempt to do the same with the Stanton data. In this case there is an exceptional amount of data due to the early arrival of the Stanton's to North America, and their settling into Rhode Island, an obvious spot for seafarers. The map of Rhode Island shown below indicates the settling areas for the Stanton's. As the population grew, many of the growing communities split off from the "mother" town and formed new communities. Charlestown is an example of this outreach. Later on Richmond formed (1647) when Charlestown subdivided.^{1,6}

While we have much to add to the Stanton records from the generation 5 of John and Mary Sherman, I am going to back track to two of the other siblings of John, son of Robert. Although there is no direct line to us through these siblings, except as far distant cousins.

Sarah Stanton, daughter of Robert and Avis married Henry Tibbetts in December, 1661. Although her birth date is not known, she passed on sometime after 1708. Eight children were borne out of this marriage, Henry, Ann, George, John, Mary, Sarah, Martha, and an unnamed daughter.

Daniel Stanton, born in 1645 in Newport, Rhode Island, married an Elizabeth (?) prior to 1676, and was a land owner in Newport. The records show that on February 15, 1679, he sold to James Brown, a cooper of Newport, land in Coeset, for 40 shillings. In 1680 he was taxed 12 shillings. He served on a Grand Jury in 1688. Both he and Elizabeth passed on sometime after 1690. Daniel and Elizabeth had six children, Elizabeth. Born on June 20, 1676m Martha, born on June 8, 1678, Sarah, born on February 27, 1680, Ruth, born on April 8, 1687, Benjamin, born on October 20, 1690, and Daniel, born on April 19, 1682.

Daniel was a mariner and made voyages for some years between Barbados and Philadelphia. He married Abigail Spicer about 1707. Daniel died at sea on his way from Barbados to Philadelphia. His pregnant wife Abigail, who had accompanied Daniel on the trip to Barbados, gave birth to Daniel's son after her return to Philadelphia. Daniel Jr. was born in 1708. Daniel Sr. died in 1708. The widow Abigail died in 1714 and her will was proved May 31, 1714. To her son Daniel, she gave her estate, but if he died before age twenty-one, her brother Thomas Spicer was to have it. Good fortune prevailed and the son's death did not occur until June 29, 1770. Daniel Jr. had become a distinguished Quaker preacher.¹

Finally, with regard to Robert and Avis, we should make note of several generations of Avis' ancestry. She was born ~ 1621 in Dutton Bassett Leicestershire, England. Her father was Christopher Almy of South Kilworth, Leicestershire. Born sometime between 1557 and 1575. Her mother, a Miss Clarke, was born in 1678 and they were married sometime before 1601. Christopher Almy was the son of Thomas Almy of St. David, Barton, Summersetshire, England. Thomas was born in 1550 and died in 1604 in Dunton-Bassett, Leicestershire. Christopher's mother was Joanne Wale, 1552 - 1604 in Dunton-Bassett Leicestershire.

Born 19 April 1682. (See Genealogy Chart S – 1).(5)

Several of the Stanton's were mariners including Daniel III (1682 – 1708). Daniel was a sailor working between Barbadoes and Philadelphia. In 1706/07, he married Abigail Spicer. In 1708, they started on a journey from Barbadoes toward Philadelphia. Daniel dies during the voyage and is buried at sea. Abigail arrived in Philadelphia, and not long afterward, her son is born. Daniel IV was born in 1708. Abigail's will is dated May 10, 1714 and proved on May 31, 1714 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. There seems to be no record of the cause of her death as was true for many a pioneer in this country. She died a widow and gave her Estate to her son Daniel IV, with the following proviso: if he died before he reached the age of 21, the estate goes to her brother, Thomas Spicer. The evidence seems to suggest that Thomas also raised her son Daniel. Daniel survived and married Sarah Lloyd on 05 February 1733. They lived in Philadelphia where Daniel IV carried on the trade of a joiner and was also a distinguished Society of Friends preacher. For 43 years he traveled and preached, reaching such distant points as Barbadoes, England, Scotland and Ireland, and in many locations in America from North Carolina to Dover, Delaware and through many New England States. Daniel IV had children in Philadelphia, but only one child survived to be of age. Daniel IV died at the age of 62 on 29 June 1770. His wife, Sarah Lloyd Stanton, preceded him in death on 03 April 1748.

The memoirs of Daniel Stanton contained the following statement:

"I was born in 1708 of honest parents, Daniel and Abigail Stanton. My father I never saw, being lost at sea before my birth. My mother died when I was a child, and I, being destitute of brother or sister, was brought up (until I was apprenticed) by my mother's brother in New Jersey. I was then apprenticed to a joiner in Philadelphia. In 1731 I went to Rhode Island to see relatives, this being the place where my father was born, and to obtain some estate there which was my father's, of which I had an account during my apprenticeship. Saw my relatives and staid some time to attend to my outward affairs and then returned to Philadelphia. (Note: Daniel was in Rhode Island in 1735 and 1744). My wife died in 1748, age 40, and in about a week later I lost my youngest son, having lost four sons before her death. I have two daughters left. A daughter Abigail died in 1757, age 21, and was the eldest daughter."

He also speaks of Uncle Thomas Chalkey and Aunt Martha Chalkey, and kinsman, Job Newman in Coventry, England. (Newman's wife was a sister to Daniel's wife.) He also spoke of being in Newport, Rhode Island, in 1754, at the burial of Samuel Holmes's wife. He references to Mary Henderson as "my father's sister, being near West River, Maryland" Mary Henderson died about 1761. Daniel reported a visit to Shrewsbury, New Jersey, to see "my father's cousin, James Tucker, 1764."

Daniel's children were John, born in 1734 and died in August 1737; Abigail, born in 1736 and died in November, 1757; Daniel V, born 1738 and died in 1740; Sarah, born July 5, 1741, married a Benedict Dorsey. Mr. Dorsey was born in 1734 at Anne Arundel, Maryland. She was still alive at the death of her father. Other children were John, born in

Born 19 April 1682. (See Genealogy Chart 2 - 1a)

Several of the Stannan's were married including Daniel III (1682 - 1708). Daniel was a sailor working between Barbados and Philadelphia. In 1708, they started on a journey from Barbados named Abigail Spoor. In 1708, they started on a journey from Barbados named Abigail Spoor. Daniel dies during the voyage and is buried at sea. Abigail arrived in Philadelphia and not long after, her son is born. Daniel IV was born in 1708. Abigail's will is dated May 10, 1714 and proved on May 31, 1714. There seems to be no record of the date of her death as was true for many a pioneer in this country. She died a widow and gave her estate to her son Daniel IV, with the following proviso: If he died before he reached the age of 21, the estate goes to his brother, Thomas Spoor. The evidence seems to suggest that Thomas also raised her son Daniel. Daniel survived and married Sarah Lloyd on 02 February 1737. They lived in Philadelphia where Daniel IV owned on the lands of a joint and was also a distinguished Society of Friends member. For 43 years he traveled and preached visiting such distant points as Barbados, England, Scotland and Ireland, and in many locations in America from North Carolina to Texas, Tennessee and through many New England States. Daniel IV had children in Philadelphia, but only one child survived to be an age. Daniel IV died at the age of 63 on 20 June 1770. His wife, Sarah Lloyd Stannan, preceded him in death on 03 April 1788.

The memoirs of Daniel Stannan contained the following statement:

"I was born in 1708 at Barbados, a small island and English colony. My father was a sailor and being lost at sea before my birth, my mother died when I was a child and I being destitute of brother or sister, was brought up by Daniel I was apprenticed to my mother's brother in Barbados. I was then returned to a father in Philadelphia. In 1731 I went to Rhode Island to see my brother, but being too poor to make my father was born and to obtain more money than which was my father's estate I had an account during my apprenticeship. I was an apprentice and still went to see to my mother's estate and then returned to Philadelphia. Daniel I owned was in Rhode Island in 1731 and 1734. My wife died in 1748 age 30, and in about a week later I and my youngest son having lost our own money for debts I was very distressed. A daughter Abigail died in 1755, age 21, and was the eldest daughter."

He also speaks of Uncle Thomas Coker and Aunt Martha Coker, and of a woman, Job Newman in Conway, England. Newman's wife was a sister to Daniel's wife. He also speaks of being in Newport, Rhode Island, in 1734, at the birth of Samuel Holmes's wife. His reference to Mary Handman as "my father's sister, being near West River, Maryland." Mary Handman died about 1761. Daniel reported a visit to Elizabeth, New Jersey, to see "my father's cousin, James Tucker, 1764."

Daniel's children were John, born in 1734 and died in August 1737; Abigail, born in 1738 and died in November, 1757; Daniel V, born 1738 and died in 1740; Sarah, born July 2, 1741, married a General. Mr. Dotsey was born in 1734 at Anne Arundel, Maryland. She was still alive at the death of her father. Other children were John, born in

1743 and died in 1744; Samuel, born in 1745 and died in 1746; and Josiah, born in 1747 and died in 1748.^(7,8)

Settlement of the Estate of John Stanton

John Stanton passed away intestate (without a will) leaving unsettled debts. To pay off the debts, the family needed to sell his 90 acres of property. The property was sold to John's son Lodowick, and the deed was filed by the other heirs to the estate, namely, Susannah (Stanton) Lawrence, Mary Stanton Johnson, Sally Stanton Nobles, the daughters, and Thomas S. Stanton, Samuel W. Stanton, William Stanton, Benjamin Stanton, Joseph Stanton, Clark Stanton and John Stanton, sons. It appears from the deed that the husbands of the daughters also needed to sign off on the estate.

The deed reads as follows:

Know to all men by these presents that, we Thomas S Stanton, Russell Johnson, and Mary Johnson of Laurens, County Otsego and State of New York, Samuel W. Stanton and William Stanton of New Lisbon, County of Otsego, and State aforesaid, Benjamin Stanton, John Lawrence and Susannah Lawrence, John Noble and Sally Noble of Spafford, County of Onondaga, and State aforesaid, Joseph Stanton of Marcellus, County of Onondaga, and State aforesaid, Clark Staunton of Naples, County of Stuben, State aforesaid, and John Staunton of Pownal, County of Bennington and State of Vermont, for and in consideration of one thousand dollars received to our full satisfaction of Lodowick Staunton of Pownal aforesaid, have remised, released, and forever quitclaimed; and be these presents, for ourselves our heirs, do fully, clearly, and absolutely, remise, release and forever quitclaim unto the Said Lodowick Staunton, his heirs and assigns forever, all the right, title, interest, estate, property and demand, which we have in and to a certain piece or parcel of land lying and being in Pownal aforesaid and bounded as follows: to wit, East by the highway and Eli Carpenters, North on a line between Pownal and Bennington, West by Stutely M. Watson's land, South by Reynold Carpenter's land containing about 42 acres, with the buildings thereon standing; and also one other piece or parcel of land lying in the town and County of Bennington aforesaid bounded as follows, to wit, East by lands of Jesse Loomis, North on lands of Elijah Fay, West by lands belonging being in, to Lodowick Staunton, William Burlinson and Larence Watson, South and Southeasterly by Stutely M. Watson, and Eli and Reynold Carpenter both of the two last parcels of land containing about 50 acres of land, be the same, more or less; each and every of the aforesaid tracts or parcels of land, which was of and composed the Real Estate of John Staunton, late of Pownal aforesaid deceased; to have and to hold the aforesaid premises unto him the said Lodowick Staunton his, his heirs and assigns forever, so that neither we, said Thomas S. Staunton, Russel Johnson, Mary Johnson, Samuel W. Staunton, William Staunton, Benjamin Staunton, John Lawrence, and Susannah Lawrence, John Noble, Sally Noble, Joseph Staunton, Clark Staunton, and John Staunton, nor any other person or persons in our name or behalf, shall or will hereafter claim or demand any right or title to the premises aforesaid or any part thereof; but they and every of them shall by these presents, be excluded and forever barred; In witness thereof we have hereunto set our hands and Seals, this 14th day of February, A. D. 1815.

State of New York (fs) Be it remembered that on the fourth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred fifteen came before me the within Benjamin Stanton, John Noble and Sarah his wife & Susannah Lawrence, wife of John Lawrence, and also John Lawrence of the town of Spafford in the County of Onondaga and the said John Lawrence being by me examined on oath declared that he knew the said Benjamin Stanton, John Noble and his wife, & Susannah Lawrence to be the persons described in & who have executed the within deed, which is to me satisfactory evidence that the above named persons, their appearing before me are such persons as aforesaid & thereupon the said Benjamin Stanton, John Noble and Sarah his wife, and Susannah Lawrence, acknowledge that they executed the within deed for the use and purposes therein mentioned and the said Sarah & Susannah being by me privately examined apart from their said husband acknowledged that they executed the within deed freely without any fear or compulsion of their said husbands, all which I do hereby certify according to the statute in such case made and provided.

Freeborn Gelwitt
Master in Chancery

Recorded this 11th day of July, 1818.

By: Aaron Robinson, Town Clerk.

Hoeper (1), herself a descendant of both the Lawrences and Stanton's, examined the entries in the Bennington town records and sketched out the map of the said property occupied and owned by John Stanton. No explanation is offered for the multiple signings by some of the partys involved nor is there any explanation about the lag time between the filing in 1815 and the recording of the deed in 1818. Since the town of Pownal and the town of Bennington are only six miles apart, there clearly existed much interchange between the two families, not the least of which to mention was the marriage of John Lawrence, Jr. and Susannah Stanton, and the marriage of Lodowick Stanton and Mary Lawrence.

Subject: What a Day !!!!!!!

Ina & Jane Schrandt have helped me with the 38 e-mail messages our computer ate. I though t (Oh, well) I put them in a folder, but all I had left was address list. BUT, poor Ben!!

FORTUNATELY, The one you I saved was the on
 w/attachments & all th
 Genealogy info. (Prett
 please add where perso were born, married & died.) It helps knowi where to go for eviden
 on records that are proof

It's nice to know that every thing is coming out all right at the end of the day.

We have bought a Canon copier, Model MultiPASS F30. It has al the bells and whistles, including a top-loading capability for 8-1/2 by 13 printing. So your mother can copy legal size papers. And it cost only about $170 at Sam's.

This morning I started to connect the copier/printer/scanner/fax monster to the computer. I must have been half asleep because instead of telling the computer to slide out the CD tray, I just slipped the Canon CD into the slot above the CD tray. OOPS!!!!Then I realized what I had done. In effect the BOX had eaten the Canon CD for installing the Printer Driver. I could not see any way to retrieve the CD. After crying in my coffee I called Dell Net Technical Support.

Three longwinded telephone calls later I was talking to a woman in India who spoke the King's English but with an accent that made it hard for me to understand her message.

Finally, following her instructions with the BOX on its side on the floor, I opened the BOX and following her directions, I removed the CD drive assembly and LO AND BEHOLD, there was the disappearing Canon CD. After it had been found, the woman in India asked me if I was happy. I told her that I was ecstatic.

All is now well, sort of. With the computer we received three months worth of Norton AntiVirus. Today was the last day of it and for the past week I have been receiving messages from Norton telling me it would expire on 11/12. Each day I tried to renew but either the computer confused me or the instructions were unclear to me so I gave up.

Today I managed to renew, but when I tried to copy the renewal from the monitor the blasted printer did not print. In the course of an hour or so of frantic clicking the PRINT button and looking around to see what I was doing incorrectly NO PRI;NTING.

After a break I started the computer up and when I clicked the PRINT button, the printer started and did not stop until it had printed 21 copies of the renewal. There must be a counter in the system so that even though the printer refused to print, when it finally decided to obey orders, it printed as many times as I had clicked the PRINTER button!!!

Prior to getting the computer I always referred to a computer as an ATTRACCTIVE NUISANCE. Now the experiences of this day have proved that it is REALLY an ATTRACTIVE NUISANCE. Only kidding in case the computer is listening.

I guess that is all for tonight. Tomorrow is bound to be better.

Best to you and Sue Ann.

Dad, better known as Sweet Ole Ben [SOB]

PS I have composed this message OFF LINE as a draft. Now, unless the computer and printer roof falls in, the message will be on it's way. PRAY, PRAY!!!!

Preface

The Final Diary of John Alexander Jackson, 1910.

A number of the diaries kept meticulously by John A. Jackson were preserved in excellent condition by his wife, Camilla Lawrence Jackson. Camilla spent the last years of her life in the residence of her daughter, Elva, in Rockford, Illinois. Upon Camilla's passing, the diaries were packaged by Elva and stored in her home. Elva died without any living descendants other than her nephew, Olin D. Jackson and a niece, Ila Unruh. Olin, in closing out Elva's home, discovered these diaries and kept them in his possession. Olin asked his wife, Edna Hanson Jackson, to read through the diaries and extract significant information on events that affected their lives. Edna Jackson's summaries can be found in the unpublished book, Just Plain Folks, by Olin DeBuhr Jackson, pp 117 – 127. John's first diary was written in 1862, when John was 18 years of age. Ironically, that year his father, Asahel Hyde Jackson passed away.

In addition to John's diaries, Olin preserved as many diaries as he could find, some of Porter Jewett Lawrence, John's uncle and father-in-law, and many of Orin Jackson, John's son and Olin's father.

Diaries are not meant to be literary masterpieces and thus do not follow all of the principle grammatical rules one learns in school. Punctuation, capitalization, and the use of complete sentences are noticeable by their absence. Words are often spelled phonetically. In transcribing this diary, the initial spellings of John have been retained but often, and parenthetically, corrected. Thus you will read "choars (chores)" in such places as they occur. In many cases, John has used abbreviations and single letters to refer to people, places, or things. Because of the frequent mention of Rockford, for example, John uses the letter R.

Finally, several items from the 1909 diary are mentioned here because they impact some of the entries:

John had a mild heart attack at the end of May, 1908 which forced him to limit his activities and to plan his remaining years. By the middle of 1909, John was unable to do heavy farm work and began to close down farming activity. William Searles, John's brother-in-law came to spend the year as a farm hand and is mentioned nearly daily in the entries.

Because of the importance of weather to the farmer, the entries usually lead with a statement about the weather conditions for the day. Actually, they became fairly good meteorologists in forecasting weather change.

Preface

The First Diary of John Alexander Jackson, 1910

A number of the diaries have been mentioned by John A. Jackson were preserved in excellent condition by his wife, Camilla Jackson. Camilla spent the last years of her life in the residence of her daughter, Elise, in Rockford, Illinois. Elise died without any living descendants other than her nephew, John D. Jackson and a niece, the Elsie. John, in closing out Elise's home, discovered these diaries and kept them in his possession. John asked his wife, Edna Hanson Jackson, to read through the diaries and extract significant information on events that affected their lives. Edna Jackson's summary can be found in the unpublished book, John A. Jackson, by John D. Jackson, pp. 117-127. John's first diary was written in 1863, when John was 18 years of age. Ironically, that year his father, Amos Hyde Jackson passed away.

In addition to John's diaries, John preserved as many diaries as he could find, some of Peter Lawson Jackson, John's uncle and father-in-law, and many of John Jackson, John's son and John's father.

Diaries are not meant to be literary masterpieces and thus do not follow all the principles of grammar and style that are found in school. Punctuation, capitalization, and the use of many words are sometimes not according to their proper use. Words are often spelled phonetically, or misspelled, or the initial spelling of John has been retained but altered, and sometimes they are corrected. This you will find "John's" diaries, as such, as they are. In many cases, John has used abbreviations and slight letters to refer to people, places or things. Because of the frequent mention of Rockford, for example, John uses the letter R.

Finally, several years from the 1900 diary are mentioned here because they impact some of the diaries. John had a mild heart attack at the end of May, 1902 which forced him to limit his activities and to plan his remaining years. By the middle of 1906, John was unable to do heavy farm work and began to close down farming activity. William Switzer, John's brother-in-law came to spend the year as a farm hand and is mentioned nearly daily in the entries. Because of the importance of weather to the farmer, the entries usually lead with a statement about the weather conditions for the day. Actually, they become fairly good meteorologists in forecasting weather change.

Settlement of the Estate of John Stanton

John Statnton passed away intestate (without a will) leaving unsettled debts. To pay off the debts, the family needed to sell his 90 acres of property. The property was sold to John's son Lodowick, and the deed was filed by the other heirs to the estate, namely, Susannah (Stanton) Lawrence, Mary Stanton Johnson, Sally Stanton Nobles, the daughters, and Thomas S. Stanton, Samuel W. Stanton, William Stanton, Benjamin Stanton, Joseph Stanton, Clark Stanton and John Stanton, sons. It appears from the deed that the husbands of the daughters also needed to sign off on the estate.

The deed reads as follows:

Know to all men by these presents that, we Thomas S Stanton, Russell Johnson, and Mary Johnson of Laurens, County Otsego and State of New York, Samuel W. Stanton and William Stanton of New Lisbon, County of Otsego, and State aforesaid, Benjamin Stanton, John Lawrence and Susannah Lawrence, John Noble and Sally Noble of Spafford, County of Onondaga, and State aforesaid, Joseph Stanton of Marcellus, County of Onondaga, and State aforesaid, Clark Staunton of Naples, County of Stuben, State aforesaid, and John Staunton of Pownal, County of Bennington and State of Vermont, for and in consideration of one thousand dollars received to our full satisfaction of Lodowick Staunton of Pownal aforesaid, have remised, released, and forever quitclaimed; and be these presents, for ourselves our heirs, do fully, clearly, and absolutely, remise, release and forever quitclaim unto the Said Lodowick Staunton, his heirs and assigns forever, all the right, title, interest, estate, property and demand, which we have in and to a cetain piece or parcel of land lying and being in Pownal aforesaid and bounded as follows: to wit, East by the highway and Eli Carpenters, North on a line between Pownal and Bennington, West by Stutely M. Watson's land, South by Reynold Carpenter's land containing about 42 acres, with the buildings thereon standing; and also one other piece or parcel of land lying in the town and County of Bennington aforesaid bounded as follows, to wit, East by lands of Jesse Loomis, North on lands of Elijah Fay, West by lands belonging being in, to Lodowick Staunton, William Burlinson and Larence Watson, South and Southeasterly by Stutely M. Watson, and Eli and Reynold Carpenter both of the two last parcels of land containing about 50 acres of land, be the same, more or less; each and every of the aforesaid tracts or parcels of land, which was of and composed the Real Estate of John Staunton, late of Pownal aforesaid deceased; to have and to hold the aforesaid premises unto him the said Lodowick Staunton his, his heirs and assigns forever, so that neither we, said Thomas S. Staunton, Russel Johnson, Mary Johnson, Samuel W. Staunton, William Staunton, Benjamin Staunton, John Lawrence, and Susannah Lawrence, John Noble, Sally Noble, Joseph Staunton, Clark Staunton, and John Staunton, nor any other person or persons in our name or behalf, shall or will hereafter claim or demand any right or title to the premises aforesaid or any part thereof; but they and every of them shall by these presents, be excluded and forever barred; In witness thereof we have hereunto set our hands and Seals, this 14th day of February, A. Hoeper (1), herself a descendant of both the Lawrences and Stanton's, examined the entries in the Bennington town records and sketched out the map of the said property occupied and owned by John Stanton. No explanation is offered for the multiple signings by some of the partys involved nor is there any explanation about the lag time between the filing in 1815 and the recording of the deed in 1818. Since the town of Pownal and the town of Bennington are only six miles apart, there clearly existed much interchange between the two families, not the least of which to mention was the marriage of John Lawrence, Jr. and Susannah Stanton, and the marriage of Lodowick Stanton and Mary Lawrence.

above named persons, their appearing before me as such persons as Stanton & therefore the said Benjamin Stanton, John Noble and Sarah his wife, and Susannah Lawrence, acknowledged that they executed the within deed for the use and purposes therein mentioned and the said Sarah & Susannah being by me physically examined apart from their said husband acknowledged that they executed the within deed freely without any fear or compulsion of their said husbands, in which I do hereby certify according to the statute in such case made and provided.

A report of Quagantabak's testimony.

Report on Rhode Island, March 14th, 1854.

Quagantabak, brother to Quagantabak, and being both chief sachems of the Narragansett Indians and country, the said Quagantabak the day and year aforesaid doth declare and testify in solemn manner the particulars following: First that whereas there was war between the Fedoga and Narraganset about thirty years ago, being some years before the English had war with the said Pequots, it so fell out that some Pequots came in those days over Paucatuck river, and seated on the neck called Misquamicoock, which was the Narraganset lands and territories, whereupon the Narragansett Sachems, Canonicus and Miantonomy, employed a captaine of those parts their subject to destroy or beat off those intruding Pequots, and in case he so did, they gave to him and his forever the said land called Misquamick, which said tract of land is bounded by the sea on the South, and by the river called Pawcatuck on a part of the west side, and by a pond called Weakapaug on the east side next the sea, and so running north-westerly into the country twenty miles from the sea, and the said tract being broader within land than it is on the sea coast before mentioned.— And further, the aforementioned Sachem affirmeth that the captain before intended that was employed to remove those Pequots aforesaid was named Sosoa, and is still living, and known by that name who did accordingly beat off the said Pequots from the aforesaid land, and took and kept the same ever since, it being given him by the abovesaid Sachems for the service aforesaid, which said service he did and took possession therefore of the abovementioned tract of land two years before the war began that fell out between the English and the Pequots. And further the Sachem abovesaid affirmeth that of the abovementioned tract of land the said Sosoa was absolutely the true and rightly instated owner, and was capable to make firm sale thereof, none other Sachem or Indian having any way power of right to contradict or disannul the same. And lastly he doth affirm that Nencraft nor no other of the Nayantick Sachems, either have or ever had any right of claim to any part or parts of the aforementioned tract of land. And to the truth hereof the said Cachanaquant doth put to his hand in confirmation of the same.

and Narragansett about thirty years ago, being some years before the English had war with the said Indians, it so fell out that some Indians came in those days over Pawcatuck river, and seated on the neck called Mispamiscock, which was the Narragansett lands and territories, whereas the Narragansett Sachems, Canonicus and Miantonomi, employed a captain of those parts their subject to destroy or beat off those intruding Indians, and in case he so did, they gave to him and his forever the said land called Mispamiscock, which said tract of land is bounded by the sea on the south, and by the river called Pawcatuck on a part of the west side, and by a pond called Wepaquag on the east side next the sea, and so running north-westerly into the country twenty miles from the sea, and the said tract being broader within land than it is on the sea coast before mentioned. And further, the aforementioned Sachem affirmed that the captain before mentioned that was employed to remove those Indians therefrom was named Sosee, and is still living, and known by that name who did accordingly beat off the said Indians from the aforesaid land, and took and kept the same ever since, it being given him by the aforesaid Sachems for the service aforesaid, which said service he did and took possession therefore of the aforesaid tract of land two years before the war began that fell out between the English and the Indians. And further the Sachem aforesaid affirmed that of the aforesaid tract of land the said Sosee was absolutely the true and right last and owner, and was capable to make this sale thereof, none other Sachem or Indian having any way power or right to contradict them or hinder the same. And lastly he doth affirm that Narragansett nor no other of the Narragansett Sachems, either have or ever had any right of claim to any part or parts of the aforesaid tract of land. And to the truth hereof the said Casnapagant doth put to his hand in confirmation of the same.

 Ancestral File is a collection of genealogical information taken from Patrons Online and Family Group Records submitted to the Family History Department since 1979. The information has not been verified against any official records. Since the information in Ancestral File is contributed, it is the responsibility of those who use the file to verify its accuracy.

Please Note:
 Names and dates of subjects in Ancestral File and those who have a research interest are provided to help in the coordination of research. The use of this information for any other purpose, including commercial use, is strictly prohibited.
